THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.ESWARAIAH

W.P.NO.27169 OF 2005

Dt.21.12.2005

Between:

J.Govinda Rajulu … Petitioner

And

The Director General of Police,

Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad and 6 others … Respondents

ORDER:

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Home on behalf of the respondents.

The petitioner submits that he is working as Senior Officer in South Central Railway and he has completed 30 years of service. It is stated that his son Rajinikanth, who got separated in 2001, is living separately and doing certain business in the name and style of Gokhale Software at S.R.Nagar and he sustained losses. It is stated that he has borrowed certain amounts from some persons and the said persons with the help of the respondents pressurizing the petitioner to produce his son and also threatened him with dire consequences.

If the son of the petitioner is due and payable certain amounts to the third parties, it is for the third parties to take appropriate action against the son of the petitioner. But the police cannot pressurize the petitioner and threatened him with dire consequences to produce his son. Without their being any complaint or report by the aggrieved persons that the petitioner has committed cognizable offence, the respondents shall not interfere with the personal life and liberty of the petitioner.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs.
